

Environmental and Sustainability

RONALDO
MARTINS
& Advogados

1990

Area

RONALDO MARTINS & Advogados has expertise in Environmental Law with the aim of advising and providing outstanding service to companies in the area of environmental relations, aiming at complying with the environmental and sustainability guidelines of the various government bodies.

The firm always works closely with companies' internal environmental management and sustainability teams, in order to understand their needs, identify and offer opportunities for improvement and optimization, developing innovative legal solutions that meet the client's expectations.

RONALDO MARTINS & Advogados makes complete and individualized legal and technical advisory services available, guiding and advising companies on the most pertinent issues related to their business, mainly in the areas described below.

ADVISORY/CONSULTING

- Risk analysis - preventive and corrective audits
- Environmental compliance
- Environmental, Social and Corporate Governance (ESG) – sustainability reports
- Assessment of environmental risks and liabilities for operations structured for the acquisition, merger and acquisition of companies, including due diligence
- Adjustment of environmental liabilities
- Licenses and renewals before the various environmental agencies (federal, state and municipal)
- Updating of environmental legislation
- Advice on filing and monitoring reports with the various supervisory bodies
- Update of the environmental legislation applicable to the business at federal, state and municipal level.